Sec. 8. Officers or members are ranked in the following order: President, Secretary, Treasurer, Members of the Rules Committee, including the President will deal with on-site dealings with golf course management on the day of play to include to play or not to play.

Article IV - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of four) members in good standing of the Wednesday Night league and they shall exercise all powers of management of the league not specifically excepted by these By-Laws. (The Board of Directors shall include the President and Vice President of the league and two elected members determined at the spring meeting

Article VI - AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall have the power to repeal or amend any of these By-Laws provided that such action shall not be effective until approved by a majority vote of the members of Wednesday night golf league at a meeting held in accordance with the provisions contained herein

Article IV - Points and Order of Play

Sec. 1. Each team will consist of four players.. The lowest average of a player shall play in the number 1 position, the next lowest average player shall play in the number 2 position, etc. The number 1 and 2 players shall play in one foursome while the number 3 and 4 players shall play in the other foursome. This will rotate every week. For instance after week one the one player will be paired with the three player and the two player paired with the 4 player. Week three will have the one playing with the four and the two player playing with the three. If one or more players are expected but have not arrived by the start of the match players should begin the match in their originally scheduled slots.. The one point for team total score shall be forfeited by the absent player(s) as soon as their opponent has made the second shot on the first hole of play. The player however can catch up and contest the holes that have not been played for match play purposes (previous holes are all forfeited). One point will be awarded for each match play winner and one point for each winner in match play. One half of point shall be awarded in the case of a tie in match and stroke play

Article VI - Postponements

Sec. 1. In any case where a regularly scheduled match is postponed, that match shall be played no later than two weeks from the original scheduled date.

Sec. 2. Weather:

a. Should the weather be threatening on the day of play, the President, or his/her designee, as set forth in Article III Sec. 1, shall decide whether all matches will be postponed or played. This decision shall be communicated to the golf course as soon as practical. The league will be notified no later than 3:00 p.m. of the postponements. Such a decision means that all matches except for rescheduled matches already in progress at that time and played to completion will not count. If the weather becomes threatening when teams have assembled at the course, each team match will be conducted unless a majority of the four or fewer members present vote to postpone their teams' match. If a team match is being postponed then one member of each foursome shall notify the league President or league secretary.

b. If the Course Becomes Unplayable: For purposes of this section, the term "foursome" means the four (or fewer number of) golfers playing in the same group on the day in question. It does not mean the four (or fewer number of) golfers playing on the same team on the day in question. Once a scheduled or rescheduled match is in progress, every effort should be made to complete the match. However, if severe weather conditions make the course unplayable after the competition is in progress, play shall be discontinued. If play is discontinued under this section, a vote must be taken among the players comprising the foursome to determine whether play should be resumed by that foursome on that same day. UNLESS A MAJORITY of those players vote to resume play on that same day, the following procedures shall apply:

(1) If less than five holes have been completed by the foursome, that foursome's matches shall be cancelled and replayed in their entirety. However, cancellation of a foursome's matches under this paragraph shall not affect the Match Play or Medal Play results of any other foursome.

(2) If five or more holes have been completed by the foursome, that foursome's matches shall be resumed on the tee of the first hole for which play was not completed. When competition is resumed, the foursome's Match Play and Medal Play results shall be preserved as they existed after completion of the hole prior to the hole on which play is to be resumed. Matches not resumed on the same day shall be rescheduled as provided in Sec. 3.

(3) Substitutes are permitted in a resumed match that is at a later date

The forfeiture provisions of the Playing Rules shall apply to such match.

Sec. 3. Lightning Rule:

a. A player may discontinue play if he/she believes that there is danger from lightning. If play is discontinued under this section, a vote must be taken among the players comprising the foursome to determine whether play should be resumed by that foursome on that same day. UNLESS ALL of the players in the foursome agree to resume play on that same day, the following rules shall apply:

(1) If less than five holes have been completed by the foursome, that foursome's matches shall be cancelled and replayed in their entirety. However, cancellation of a foursome's matches under this paragraph shall not affect the Match Play or Medal Play results of any other foursome.

(2) If five or more holes have been completed by the foursome, that foursome's matches shall be resumed on the tee of the first hole for which play was not complete. When competition is resumed, the foursome's Match Play and Medal Play results shall be preserved as they existed after completion of the hole prior to the hole on which play is to be resumed. Matches not resumed on the same day shall be rescheduled as provided in Sec. 3.

(3) In the case of a match resumed at a later date under subsection (2), if a team substitutes another player for a player who played in the discontinued match, then, for both Match Play and Medal Play purposes, the substitute player shall resume and complete play using the lower of: (a) His/her handicap, or (b) The handicap of the player for whom he/she is substituting. In such cases, neither the scores of the substitute player nor the scores of the player for whom that substitute player is playing shall be counted for handicap computation purposes. Sec. 5. In qualification of all of the foregoing, the forfeiture provisions of the Playing Rules shall apply in all cases. (Rev. 4-92)

Sec. 4. Make-up matches:

Procedure for making up of match:

Agree on a date and time to make up match within two weeks of its scheduled date

If above can not be achieved, then match score cards two weeks from the scheduled date of your match.

Scorecard match procedure:

Remind opponent that you are playing them via score card.

Inform the group you are playing with that you also have a score card match going on

Article VII - Score Cards

Sec. 1. A score card must be kept for each match played.

Sec. 2. Each score card must clearly show

- (a) the last name and first initial of each player (do not use first names or nicknames),
- (b) the hole-by-hole scores and the total score of each player,
- (c) the player's handicap,
- (d) an indication of the winner of each individual match,
- (e) the team results

Sec. 3. All score cards must be turned in the clubhouse upon completion of play

Article VIII - Rules Committee, Disputes, Decisions

Sec. 1. The Rules Committee will be made up of minimum of one league officer and a maximum of 3 league members selected from interested volunteers by a league vote at the spring league meeting. Rules Committee members must come from different teams.

Sec 2. The Rules Committee can make league and local rules pertaining to league play at any time including but not limited to matters which affect points, standings, rule interpretation, etc. All league disputes, violations, and penalties, are subject to review by the Rules Committee.

Sec 3. The committee may consult any outside party including but not limited to the parties involved, any witnesses, and/or the course head golf professional. Decisions made by the Rules Committee are final. Major changes in league rules are proposed and voted on in the preseason meeting or require a written vote of all league members.
